

design ideas for

CREATIVE HOMEOWNER®

Flooring

| products |

| inspiration |

| materials |

Joseph R. Provey

LEFT Floor cloths were popular during Colonial times, when many homeowners were unable to afford woven rugs. They continue to be a natural fit for period decor, such as in this dining room.

BELOW LEFT Floor cloths were also used in wealthy homes to protect more-expensive floors. This galley kitchen runner serves the same purpose today.

RIGHT Floor cloths can be custom-designed to fit odd-shaped spaces, such as this L-shaped hallway.

